

AVEPOINT, INC.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

Approved: June 29, 2021Effective: July 1, 2021

There shall be a Committee of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of AvePoint, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), to be known as the Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) with purpose, composition, authority, duties, and responsibilities, as follows:

A. PURPOSE OF THE COMMITTEE.

The purpose of the Committee is to:

1. Review and approve the compensation of the Company’s executive officers, non-executive officers, and certain other employees as described in this charter;
2. Act as the administering committee for equity compensation plans as designated by the Board; and
3. Perform the other duties and responsibilities set forth in this charter.

B. COMPOSITION OF THE COMMITTEE.

The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board. The Committee will be composed of not less than three Board members. Each member shall be “independent” in accordance with applicable law, including the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”) (taking into account such additional independence requirements specific to membership on the Committee as may be required by the rules of Nasdaq). Committee members are prohibited from interlocking or insider participation with any member of the board or compensation committee of another company. All Committee members shall qualify as “Non-employee Directors” for the purposes of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). At least two Committee members shall qualify as “outside directors” for the purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The presiding officer of the Committee (the “Chair”) shall be designated by the Board.

Members of the Committee shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified or their earlier resignation or removal. The Board may replace any member of the Committee.

C. COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

The Committee shall meet as often as it deems appropriate, but not less than four times a year, to perform its duties and responsibilities under this charter. The Chair of the Board, any member of the Committee, or the Secretary of the Company may call meetings of the Committee. The Chair of the Committee, in consultation with the Committee members and members of management, will determine the frequency and length of Committee meetings and develop the Committee's agenda. At the beginning of the year, the Committee will establish a schedule of agenda subjects to be discussed during the year (to the extent these can be foreseen). The Committee shall maintain written minutes of its meetings, which will be filed with the meeting minutes of the Board.

D. AUTHORITY AND RESOURCES.

The Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company or the Company's outside counsel to attend a Committee meeting. Barring any conflict of interest (including any circumstance that would or could jeopardize the independence of the Committee) identified by him, by the Board, by the Committee, or any member or members thereof, the head of the Company's Office of the General Counsel (the "General Counsel") shall be entitled to attend meetings of the Committee as a non-voting participant, and in particular the Committee shall ensure that the General Counsel attends each meeting at which equity award grants are to be considered or approved. The Committee can delegate any of its responsibilities to such person or persons, including officers or employees of the Company or any of its members, except to the extent otherwise prohibited by applicable law or the rules and regulations of the SEC or the Nasdaq.

The Committee has the right, in its sole discretion, at any time to retain or obtain advice, reports or opinions from such internal and external counsel, compensation consultants and other experts and advisors (each, a "Compensation Advisor") as it deems necessary or appropriate to assist it in the full performance of its functions. For the avoidance of doubt, unless otherwise determined by this Committee or the Board, the Committee's initial Compensation Advisor shall be Lockton Companies, LLC.

The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, and oversight of the work of any Compensation Advisor retained by the Committee. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any Compensation Advisor retained by the Committee. Before selecting or receiving advice from a Compensation Advisor (other than the General Counsel), the Committee shall consider such factors as may be required by the rules of the Nasdaq or applicable rules of the SEC with respect to the independence of the Compensation Advisor. Nothing in the foregoing shall be construed: (i) to require the Committee to implement or act consistently with the advice or recommendations of the Compensation Advisor; or (ii) to affect the ability or obligation of a Committee to exercise its own judgment in fulfillment of the duties of the Committee.

With the Committee's oversight, the Compensation Advisor shall work with management of the Company to create, compile, and reconcile information necessary to prepare all compensation reports for the Committee and make recommendations to the Committee based on the recommendations of the Compensation Advisor.

Notwithstanding anything else contained in this charter to the contrary, the Committee shall not be empowered to approve matters that applicable law, the Company's charter, or the Company's bylaws require to be approved by a vote of the full Board.

E. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES.

The Committee shall:

1. Review and approve the compensation of the Executive Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Legal Officer, and the Chief Financial Officer (collectively, the foregoing referred to as the “Named Executive Officers”), the Company’s other executive officers, non-executive officers, employees at a rank equal to or exceeding vice president, and, to the extent the Committee deems appropriate, other employees. Such review and approval shall include assessment of base salary, bonus, and equity awards under the Company’s compensation and incentive plans. None of the persons described above may be present during voting or deliberations on his or her compensation, even if such person were otherwise entitled to attend a meeting of the Committee.
2. Review and approve any perquisites and benefit policies or programs available to the Company’s executive officers, except to the extent such benefit policies or programs apply to employees of the Company generally.
3. Review annually with the Board an evaluation of the performance of the Named Executive Officers and the Company’s other executive and non-executive officers.
4. Review and approve compensation arrangements for persons newly hired as executive officers of the Company and compensation changes for employees promoted into such roles.
5. Review and approve any employment or post-employment agreement applicable to any of the Company’s executive officers in accordance with all applicable laws.
6. Review annually and make recommendations to the Board regarding the compensation of members of the Board and Board committees.
7. To the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, recommend to the Board the establishment or modification of equity compensation plans for the Company and its subsidiaries.
8. Act as administering committee of any employee bonus and other incentive plans, equity compensation plans and equity arrangements that may be adopted by the Company from time to time, with such authority and powers as are set forth in the respective plans' instruments, in each case subject to applicable policies adopted by the Board.
9. To the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, review with management the Company’s employee benefit policies, programs, and administration.
10. Oversee and at least annually review compliance with the stock ownership guidelines for directors the Named Executive Officers and the Company’s other executive and non-executive officers .
11. Oversee and at least annually review the assessment and mitigation of risks associated with the Company’s compensation policies and practices.
12. Review and discuss with management the Company’s Compensation Discussion & Analysis and recommend to the Board whether the Compensation Discussion & Analysis be included in the Company’s proxy statement and annual report on Form 10-K.

13. Prepare an annual Compensation Committee Report for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and annual report on Form 10-K.
14. Consider the results of shareholder advisory votes on executive compensation (say-on-pay) and the frequency of such votes.
15. Report to the Board concerning the Committee's activities with such recommendations as the Committee deems appropriate at least once a year.
16. To the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, review and advise the Board regarding other compensation plans and perform such other functions as assigned by law, the Company's charter or bylaws, the terms of the applicable plans, or the Board.

F. REVIEW OF CHARTER.

The Committee will review and assess the adequacy of the Committee's charter, structure, processes, and membership requirements and submit any recommended changes to the Board at least once a year.
